FOR GOVERNOR. THOMAS BRAGG, Of Northampton County.

The Long Creek Convention.

Before another issue of our weekly paper can go forth to our friends throughout the county, the Democratic Convention at Long Creek will have met .-Upon its deliberations much will depend, and we trust that every delegate will go there with a full consciousness of the responsibility devolving upon him, and with a full determination to cast aside all merely personal feelings and predilections, and to shape his course with a single eye to the public good, which, we believe, can and will be promoted by the promotion of the best interests of the Democratic party, its harmony and the success of its principles.

This convention is a highly important body. The occasion is a highly important one, and calls for the exercise of the best discretion and the careful exclusion of everything like factiousness or personal feeling. We rest assured that the delegates concur with us in these views and opinions, and will act accord-

The Electoral Convention.

Meetings have already been held in Brunswick, Bladen, Columbus, Sampson and New Hanover, and delegates have been appointed to attend the District Electoral Convention, to be held at Wilmington, on the Tuesday of the week after the meeting of the Cincinnati Convention. We trust that Duplin, Cumberland and Harnett, Robeson and Richmond will also take measures to be represented. Let us have a full gathering. We can assure our brethren from other portions of the district, that the Democrats of New Hanover will give them a warm reception, and endeavor to make their visit a pleasant one. Will not our cotemporary of the Fayetteville Carolinian stir up the friends of the cause in the upper end of the district. Let us all meet together and see and know how we stand, and consult together at the opening of the canvass, so that throughout we may act as one man.

On Monday the President returned to the Houses in which they respectively originated, two internal improvement bills, with his reasons for withholding his approval from them. The bills are, one making an appropriation for the improvement of Navigation at the mouth of the Mississippi River at the South West Pass and Pass a l'outre, and the other making an appropriation for deepening and improving the channel over St. Clair Flats in the State of Michigan .--The President regards the works proposed as tending to the convenience and local prosperity of those more immediately concerned-an object not to be Constitutionally and justly attained by the taxation of the people of the whole country.

AN OBITUARY .- The last Warrenton News contains one obituary making a solid column and a quarFrom the Daily Journal, 21st.

We issued no paper yesterday, and we rather think that neither explanation nor apology can be expected from us. It was a general holiday. Citizens and soldiery alike joined in the exercise of the occasion, as spectators or actors; and printers, like other men, like to see what is going on; so, to give the hands employed in our office a chance, we published no Journal. Of course, editors never get tired, nor care at all for holiday.

several people, if not more, got slightly sold in this wise :- Between eight and nine o'clock, an expectant crowd gathered at the corner of Front and Market Streets, to await the arrival of the Oak City Guards. with the committee of reception. Music was heard advancing, and with it a crowd-all hands rushed forward in eager expectation, and beheld-three colored gentlemen with fife and drum, followed by other gentlemen of immature age, deliberately stepping out, and jointly and severally ejaculating-" left," "left."

Each man looked at his neighbor and said "sold." Presently, however, some rockets shot up from the neighborhood of the Railroad Depot. This time there was no mistake. The Company did come, and there was no mistake about it either. It presented the appearance of a well drilled body of fine looking men, and was much admired.

Yesterday morning the battallion turned out to receive the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, and accompany them down to the intersection of Front and Market Streets, where John A. Baker, Esar., on behalf of the Light Infantry, tendered a hearty welcome to the visiting soldiers from our sister towns of Fayetteville and Raleigh.

O. S. T. J. Robinson responded on behalf of the Fayetteville Company, and Capt. Harrison on behalf of that of Raleigh. We did not enjoy the pleasure of hearing the remarks of any of the gentlemen, on this occasion, but have heard them very highly spoken of.

About ten o'clock, the companies commenced forming on Market street, above and below Second street. The Wilmington Light Infantry, preceded by the Cornet Band, took up their position on Market, above Second; the Oak City Guards next came upon the ground and performed some beautiful evolutions in THE WASHINGTON UNION .- The Union is, upon fine style. MESSRS. EDITORS :- It appears that there are those who, though not personally my enemies, think my interests and theirs conflict, and that by injuring me they can best serve their own ends, and for that purpose, have started all manner of charges, which are calculated to injure me with the Democratic party, and make me appear, if a Temocrat at all, at least a very inconsistent one. I have not noticed any of said charges (not being a politician) until lately. I have heard that I was to be one of the Know Nothing or Ramshackle candidates for the legislature, a charge which was made previous to the last election. and not noticed by me or my friends, and now made for the purpose, no doubt, of injuring me at the coming Long Creek convention. The most interesting feature of the peace confer. ence happened after the treaty was signed, in the shape of an interchange of opinions on the subjects fort in so good a cause, and closed amidst the cheers of European interests. Count Walewski invited this interchange of sentiment, and, among other things, referred to the disturbed state of Italy, recommend ing that suggestions of a milder rule being conveyed to the Italian government; to which suggestions the plenipotentiaries generally heartily agreed. Count Cavour, in behalf of Sardinia, demanded that the secular government be established in the Roman Legations, and that the Austrian troops be with drawn. Sharp words hereupon ensued between the Austrian and Sardinian representatives, but it ended in nothing. The plenipotentiaries then proceeded to this law they each gave their adhesion, Russia qualifying her assent in the matter of privateering.

Gov. Bragg then argued the questions of Free Suffrage, the Kansas-Nebraska act, and bore down with much force on the K. N. platform and the opinions and practices of the organization in various parts of the country. His reply to Mr. G. was overwhelming. We learn that the Democrats and anti-Know-Nothings were in the highest spirits; and that Gov. Bragg's vote will be largely increased in the mountain country.

Wonderful Instance of Sagacity. We hear, says the Columbus (O.) Capital City Fact, of an instance of sagacity practised by the elephant attached to Herr Driesbach's Menagerie, which deserves record. Coming into Newark, Ohio, last Saturday, the elephant's keeper fell in a fit from his The whole menagerie immediately came to a halt, and some members of the company went forward to pick up the man. But the elephant would not allow any person to approach the senseless form of allow any person to approach the senseless form of his keeper. Taking him up with his trunk, softly, he would place him on his horse, but finding that the man was senseless, he laid him on the ground, and kept watch over him. Many members of the menagerie tried to soothe the faithful elephant, who had have become furious at the supposed death of his now become furious at the supposed death of his master, but to no purpose, and there the man lay, watched by the sagacious animal. After laying in this condition for some time, a physician, who had been sent for, arrived, and yet the elephant would alow no one to approach. At length the keeper became so far conscious as to command the elephant to let the physician come near, and the animal was docile and obedient in a moment, and the keeper was properly cared for-the elephant, all the while, expressing the utmost anxiety for the sick man.

But look at the altered position of things-at the advancing course of the democracy in New England and the other free States. Little more than a year ago fanaticism ran riot in them; maddened zeal seemed to rule the hour; and misrepresentation and passionate appeal bewilldered great numbers of the voters. But the sober seconed thought of the people dispelled the illusion, and a cool examination of facts and arguments resulted in a return of patriotic action-an action which every day is going on with ncreased impetus. This in November next will recall the people of these free States, the North and Northwest, to their duty to the Union, and place them in that national and constitutional position which the democracy has ever labored to maintain.

The Know Nothings derive much satisfaction from the assurance of A. J. Donelson that if General Jackson were now alive he would belong to "the order." On the other hand Francis P. REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, TURPENTINE-The rise in the river noticed in our last review has enabled parcels to reach here from above tide-way, which has caused considerable dullness in the market, and prices have given way 12 cents on old virgin, 15 cents on yellow dip and 15 cents on hard. The demand is confined to distillers, who do not seem disposed to purchase to any extent even at the decline noted above. Some parcels of new virgin have been brought in and taken at $3 \pi 280 lbs.

FLOUR—Has ruled quiet during the week at former quotations. The receipts of the finer grades continue exceedingly light, and a very light stock remains in first hands. For the lower grades the market rules dull, and is fairly supplied. We notice sales of small parcels Wilmington and Fayetteville brands at $7 for superfine, $6.25 for fine, and $5.50 $\mathbb{B}$ bbl. for cross;—family brands are enquired for, but with little or none offering we have no sales to report except at retail; we quote nominally at $7.75 $\mathbb{B}$ bbl.

Grain—The market for Corn remains without material alteration. There is a fair stock in store, and the demand from dealers appears to be limited at present prices. Received since last review 3,400 bushels from Hyde county, 1,650 of which went at 58\mathbb{S}$ eents, and the balance (slightly damaged) was sold at auction at prices ranging from 46 to 53 cents $\mathbb{D}$ bushel, in lots to suit.— Oats—No receipts during the past week. There is a fair stock in dealers hands, and we notice little or no demand. In the absence of sales we quote nominally at 40 @ 42 cents $\mathbb{D}$ bushel.— Peas—Cow are in fair enquiry, and have been brought in quite sparingly for a week or two past; there is, however, a fair supply in store. We notice small sales at 85 cents $\mathbb{D}$ bushel.

No receipts of Black Eye; nominal at $\mathbb{1}$ 10 @ $\mathbb{1}$ 20.—
RICE—No sales of rough. For clean we notice very little demand with a fair supply in store. Seles in the small rangel was a fair supply in store. We notice small sales at 85 cents $\mathbb{D}$ bushel.

HAY-The limited receipts for some week's past, has caused the supply on market to become somewhat reduced, and we note a fair demand for a good article. Our quotations in table represent last sales. PEA NUTS—Only one or two small sales have been effected the past week at quotations. See table.

Hav—The market is fairly supplied with all descriptions, and there is no demand except for a good article, which would sell at quotations. See table. A lot of 150 bales Eastern received and sold at $1.25 $100 lbs.

Lime—Is in moderate stock, and sells slowly at $1 20 @ $1 30 ### cask from store. No receipts.

Lumber—River—Continues exceedingly dull; several rafts on market unsold. Quotations in table are for last sales. Molasses—For Cuba we notice a fair demand, and the supply on market is light;—quotations have gone up 1 @ 2 cents. A cargo of 279 hhds. was received from Cardenas on Friday last, about half of which has been sold from wharf at 55 @ 37 cents @ gallon—cash and 90 days.
Potatoes—For Irish there is no demand, and the supply

n market is fully fair. See table for store prices.

Provisions—In N. C. cured Bacon we have no alteration to notice. The receipts per rail road have been small but the stock remaining on market is fully sufficient for the dethe stock remaining on market is fully sufficient for the demand from retailers. We note sales from store of several parcels at 12½ cents for hog round, 11½ cents for sices and shoulders, and 13@13½ cents P fb, for hams. Western cured also remains about the same. The supply on market is light, and holders are firm at quotations, at which small sales have been made from store. See table.——LARD—The market for N. C. make rules firm, with a fair enquiry from grocers, and the quantity arriving is very light; but little in first hands. Small sales at 12½ cents in bbls and 13 from grocers, and the quantity arriving is very light; but little in first hands. Small sales at 12½ cents in bbls and 13 little in first hands. NICARAGUA. -On Thursday last the President sent in to both houses of Congress, a message, transmitting to Congress reports of the Secretary of State, ting to Congress reports of the renemies should disqualify the Secretary of the Navy, and Attorney General, in deep as a well, we have come to the conclusion that from receiving the support of their friends. March, and of the House of Representatives of the 8th of May, both having reference to the routes of transit between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, through the Republics of New Grenada and Nicaragua, and the condition of affairs in Central America.

The Message is before us, although its length prevents its publication in to-day's issue. The important fact is communicated that the new Minister from Nicaragua, Vijil, has been received by the Executive of the United States. The President reviews the whole ground with express reference to a clear solution of the question, and comes to the conclusion that the United States, in pursuance of her established policy, is only concerned to know whether any parties, claiming to be the government of any country with which we maintain diplomatic relations, do, in of that country. "Another minister from the republic of Nicaragua has now presented himself, and has been received as such, satisfactory evidence appearing that he represents the government de facto, and, so far as such exists, the government de jure, of that republic."

In the Senate, some discussion arose upon a motion the Committee on Foreign Relations. Mr. Critten- sheriff volve the country in a war, and spoke of the recep- meeting. tion of the new Nicaraguan Minister as though it amounted to a recognition of the independence of Nicaragua,-the accepting of a new community into the family of natious. There was a pause. * The guardsman said: "We storm the forts to-morrow; Sing while we may, another day Will bring enough of sorrow." They lay along the battery's side,
Below the smoking cannon—
Brave hearts, from Severn and from Clyde,
And from the banks of Shannon.

They sang of love, and not of fame ; Forgot was Britain's glory— Each heart recalled a different name, But all sang " Annie Laurie. Voice after voice caught up the song, Until its tender passion Rose like an anthem, rich and strong— Their battle-eve confessi Dear girl, her name he dared not speak,

Yet, as the song grew louder, Something upon the soldier's check Washed off the stains of powder. Beyond the darkening ocean burned The bloody sunset's embers, While the Crimean valleys learned How English love remembers. And once again a fire of hell
